Level 3 SEN Teaching Assistants

Contract: Permanent
Start date: Immediate - following completion or safer recruitment/pre-employment checks
Salary: Grade E Point 12 (£25,409)
Hours: Full Time 37 hours per week

We are looking to appoint a committed and passionate Level 3 Teaching Assistant who has the skills and knowledge to support and motivate autistic leaners, with a passion for improving outcomes for children and young people.

This is an exciting opportunity to be a part of an outstanding school which is currently planning to expand. We aim to deliver the highest level of education to ensure the best life chances become a sustainable reality for every young person (on an individual need led basis). Together, we will create a safe, positive and structured environment in which every young person is respected and encouraged to achieve independence (through academic and personal skills development).

Rosehill School is a maintained special school for 126 pupils aged 4-19, on the autism spectrum, which is set in a residential area on the outskirts of Nottingham City Centre. The very large majority of pupils attending the school have a diverse range of associated communication, interaction, social, imagination, sensory and learning differences. Many of our pupils have spent time in mainstream settings but move to Rosehill for a more specialised environment and curriculum. Rosehill has been a specialist provider for autistic pupils since 1980. We have a desire to meet growing demand from local communities for educating a broader spectrum of needs and differences. It is proposed to expand Rosehill onto an additional site; The new site would offer an additional 80-90 school places for CYP with SEND, and an EHC Plan.

The school serves a diverse community, drawing children and young people from a wide range of socio-economic and multicultural backgrounds. The school has an Early Year's provision and a Sixth Form. Rosehill School is part of the Nottingham Schools Trust. The school has recently received approval from the local authority for the expansion of Rosehill, to a second site. Rosehill School - News & Events

We are committed to and passionate about the learning and progress for our pupils. Staff and governors have high aspirations for our learners, and we aim to provide a relevant, broad and balanced education that focuses on individual, personal and academic achievement.

We are looking for teaching assistants who can demonstrate.

- A passion and commitment to overcome barriers to learning
- A commitment to making a difference to children and young peoples' lives
- A personality that generates positive relationships
- Drive, energy and enthusiasm to welcome new challenges and professional development

- High expectations of pupil achievement and behaviour

In return, Rosehill is able to offer you;

- Outstanding children and young people who want to learn
- A diverse, multi-cultural community
- An excellent staff team, parents, carers and community
- Commitment to wellbeing and staff continuing professional development
