

Preparation for adulthood

Careers programme for students.

We want you to leave school and become happy, healthy, independent young adults.

We also want you to be able to go into the world of work when you leave Rosehill School.

To prepare you for adulthood, you will have the opportunity to learn about a range careers and the skills you will need to do that job.

At Rosehill School, you will:

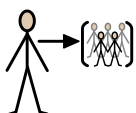

Have experience of work.

Be prepared for transition into college or work.

Develop work related skills and behaviours.

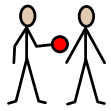

Be able to take part in business and enterprise activities.

Your

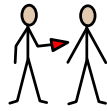

teachers

will help

you

create

career

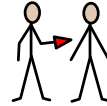

map

by making

sure

that you:

Know

what is available

for

you

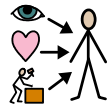

when

you

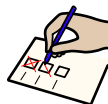

leave school.

Have

experienced

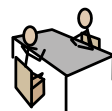

completing

application forms

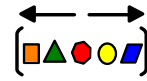

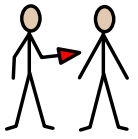

and

having interviews.

You will be provided with a range of work related learning activities. These may include work experience in school, talking to and visiting different work places and employers and doing work placements outside of school.

In every lesson, you will be taught the skills that you need to be good at when you go to college or into work.
