About Ramadan

Ramadan is the ninth month in the Islamic calendar.

It is a very special month for Muslims. This is because Muslims believe that the Qur'an, which is the Muslim

holy book was revealed

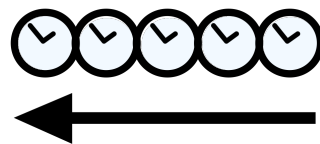

in the month

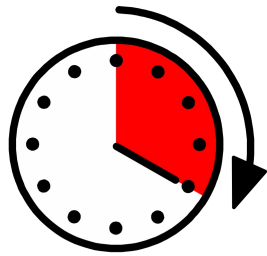

of Ramadan.

This was a very long time ago!

29

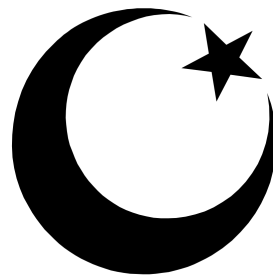

Ramadan last for

29

or

30 days.

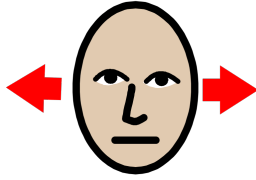

In Ramadan

Muslims

fast.

Fasting means

not

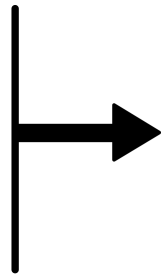

eating

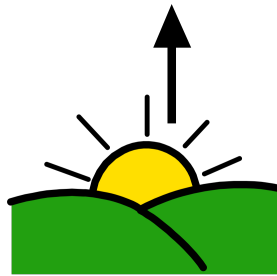

or

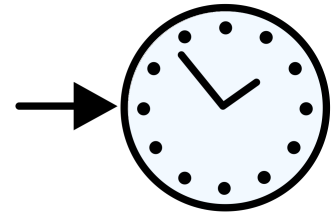

drinking

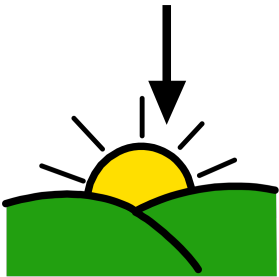

from

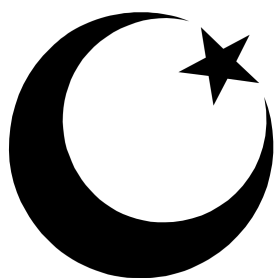

sunrise

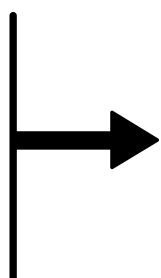

until

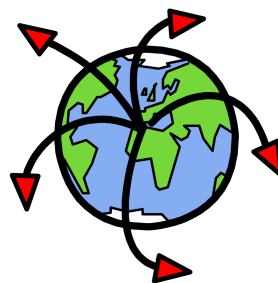

sunset.

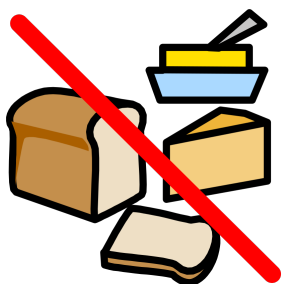

Muslims

from

all around the world

fast.

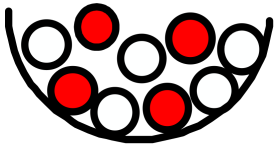

As fasting

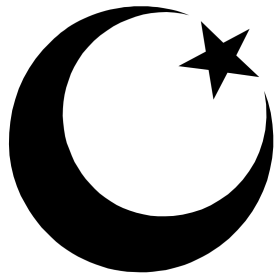

can

be difficult,

some

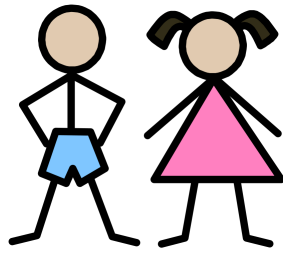

Muslims

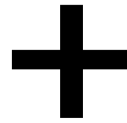

do not need

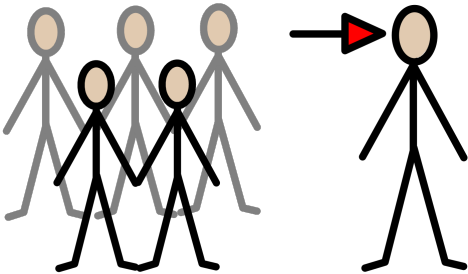

to fast,

like children

and

those people who are ill

or

unable to

fast.

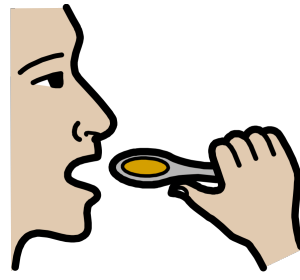

So in Ramadan,

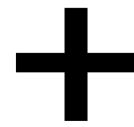

they

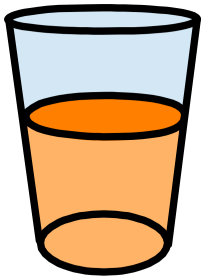

can

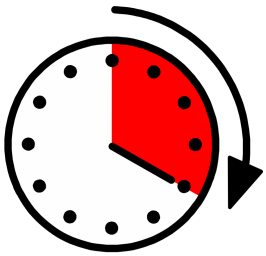

eat

drink.

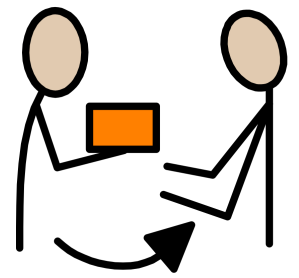

During

Ramadan

Muslims

give

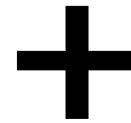

money

to the poor

and

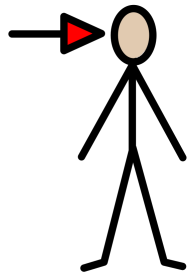

visit

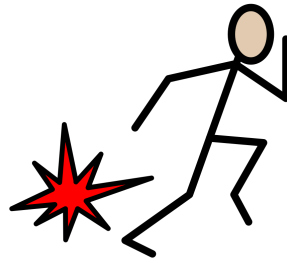

Mosques.

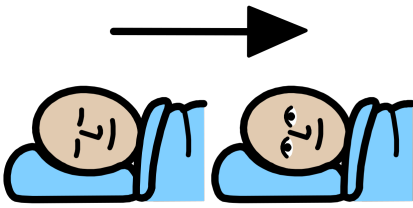

Muslims

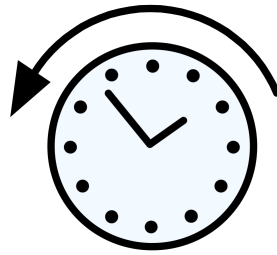

who

wake up

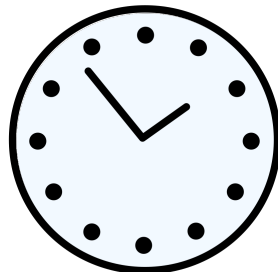

early

in the morning

when

it is dark,

eat

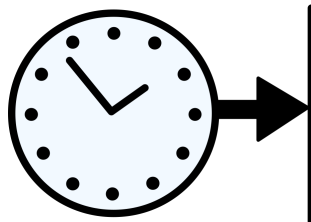

food.

This is called Suhoor.

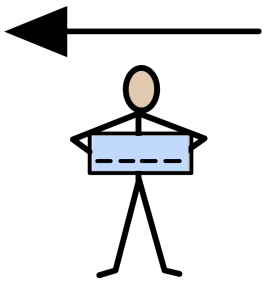

When it is

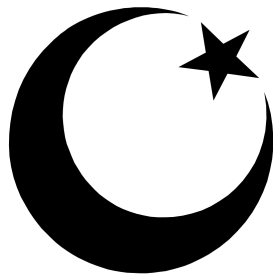

time to

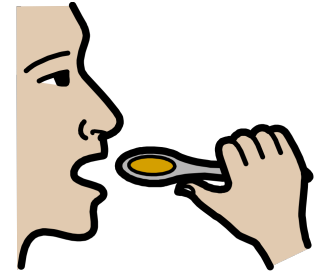

open the fast,

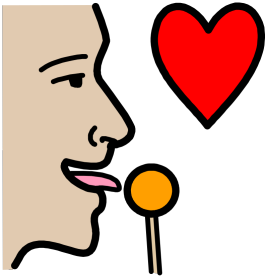

called

Iftaar, Muslims

delicious

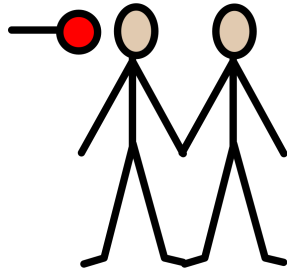

foods

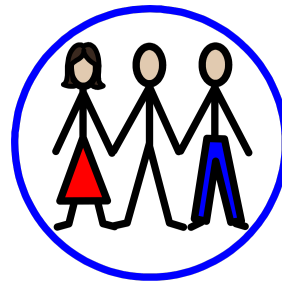

and

spend time

with their families.
